

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a travesty.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. An investigation should be in order to find out what the impetus is behind such a biased and non-newsworthy broadcast. It is more than curious that an employee who refused to work on the project because of its blatant bias was fired.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
